

Adverbs of degree with verbs

GRAMMAR

LEVEL
Intermediate

NUMBER
B1_1065G_EN

LANGUAGE
English

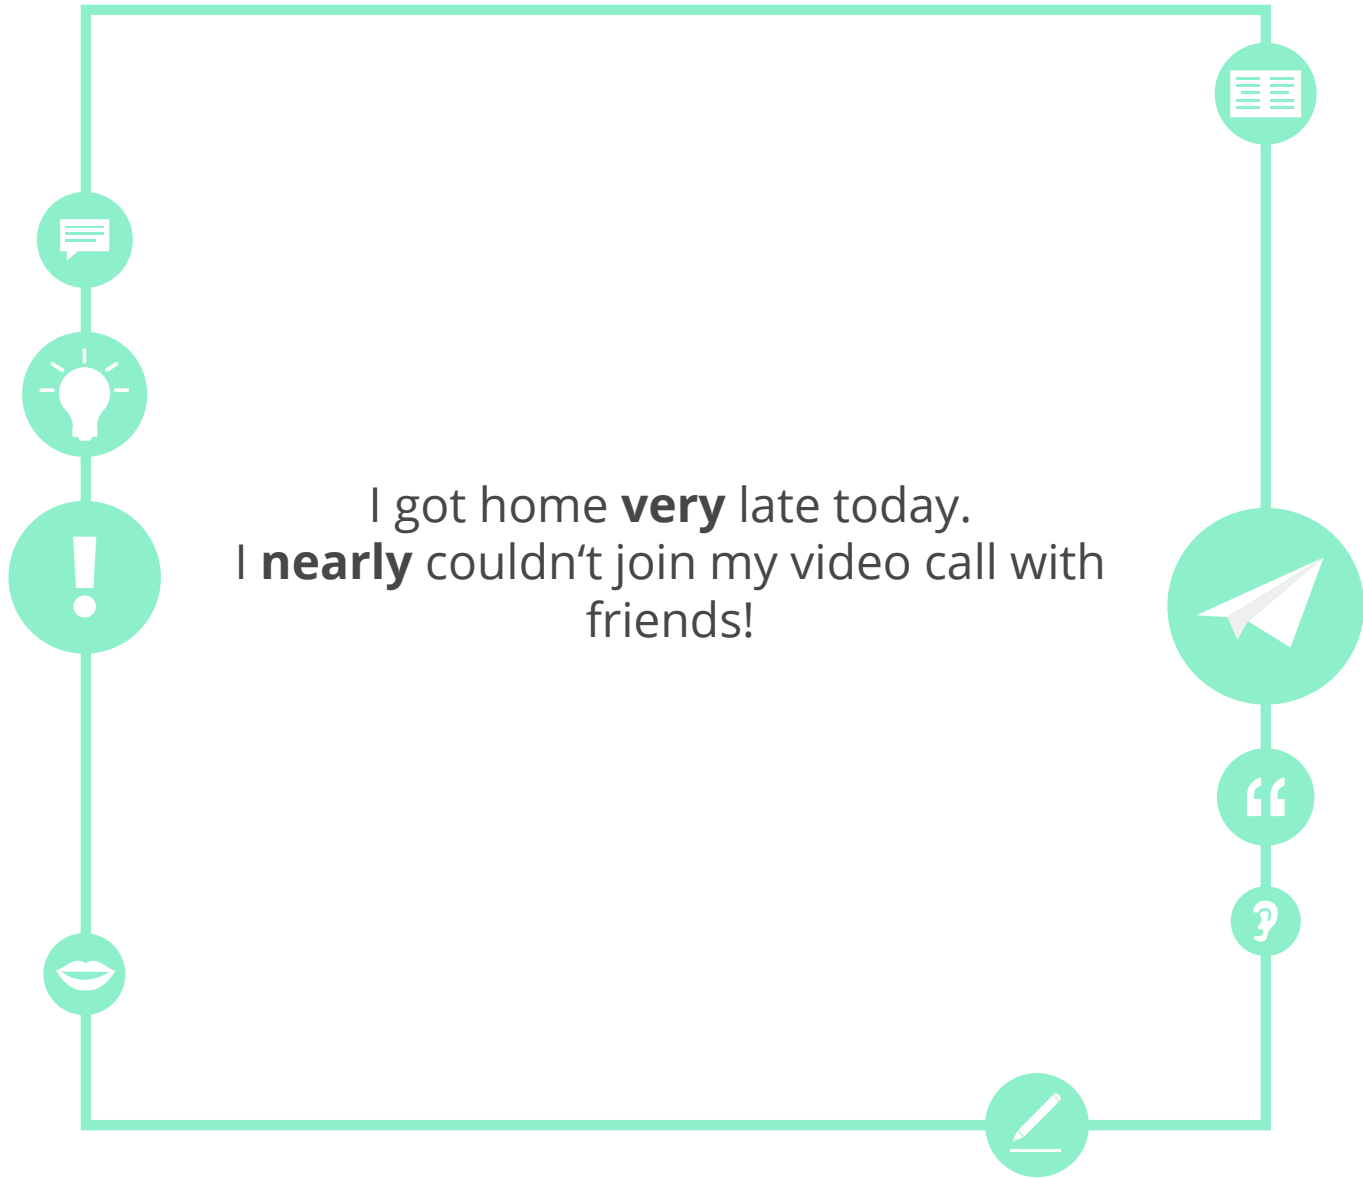

Goals

- Can provide a simple explanation of adverbs of degree and their uses, with examples.
- Can accurately select the correct adverbs of degree for a range of straightforward sentences.

I got home very late today.
I nearly couldn't join my video call with friends!

Preview and warm-up

- In this lesson you are going to learn how to use adverbs of degree with verbs.
- Adverbs of degree describe the intensity of the verb they are modifying.

I am definitely staying in this weekend.

Very

- Very is one of the most common adverbs of degree. It adds intensity.
- It comes before the adjective or adverb it describes.

It is very easy to get food delivered now.

She spoke very quickly.

My boss is a very nice person.

I'm very happy to stay in tonight.

A bit and a little

- A bit and a little both mean a small amount.
- They come after the main verb they are describing or before the adjective or adverb.

a bit	a little
Can you turn up the volume a bit ?	Can you turn up the volume a little ?
Talking to my sisters always cheers me up a bit .	Talking to my sisters always cheers me up a little .
Do you want to practise a bit ?	Do you want to practise a little ?

A bit and a little

When might you need to turn up the volume a little?

What activities and tasks make you a bit tired?

Are you ever a little worried before you join a video call?

What would you do if you were a bit bored of staying in every night?

Just, almost and nearly

- Just means very soon, now or recently. It comes before the adjective or adverb it is describing.
- Almost and nearly mean not completely but close.
 - They come before the adjective, verb or adverb they are describing.

just	almost/nearly
I have just eaten.	I am almost ready.
Alice has just hung up the call.	I nearly forgot to call my boss.
I just started a video call with my parents.	She nearly missed her colleague's presentation at the conference.
I was just leaving.	I have almost finished my call with Jay.

Fill in the gaps

Fill in the gaps with one of the adverbs below.

a bit

almost just

very

1. She felt ill because it was _____ hot in the meeting room.
2. I'll go for lunch with you in five minutes – I've _____ finished this call.
3. Why don't you try being _____ more organised?
4. I can go for lunch now – I've _____ finished my video call with Mason.

What's wrong with the sentence? Correct it!

1. I am just ready.

2. I've almost eaten.

3. We were nearly leaving.

4. He is going later a bit.

5. Will you turn down a little the volume?

Just

What have you just done, either during the lesson or before the lesson?
For example, have you just eaten? Have you just made some notes?

Almost and nearly

Have you ever almost had an argument with someone?
Why did you stop yourself?

Certainly and definitely

- Certainly and definitely both mean you are sure about something.
- They come before the word they are describing.

certainly	definitely
He certainly forgot about our call.	He definitely forgot about our call.
She will certainly join the meeting late.	She will definitely join the meeting late.
After hearing the sales pitch, they will certainly buy the product.	After hearing the sales pitch, they will definitely buy the product.

Certainly and definitely

Name something that you are certainly good at!

What should you definitely check before joining a video call?

Barely, hardly and scarcely

- Barely, hardly, and scarcely all mean a small amount.
- They come before the word they are describing.

barely	hardly	scarcely
You've barely done any work today.	You've hardly done any work today.	You've scarcely done any work today.
I barely had enough time to speak to him.	I hardly had enough time to speak to him.	I scarcely had enough time to speak to him.
We barely prepared for our video conference.	We hardly prepared for our video conference.	We scarcely prepared for our video conference.

Barely, hardly and scarcely

Complete the sentences with your own ideas.

I hardly ever go to...

I barely notice when...

I scarcely remember...

A vertical sheet of lined paper with a spiral binding on the left side, intended for writing answers. It has several horizontal lines for writing.

Extremely and completely

- Extremely means very much.
- Completely means in every way or as much as possible.
- They come before the word they are describing.

extremely	completely
I am extremely tired.	I am completely exhausted.
Video calls are extremely convenient.	They completely forgot about the call.
He is extremely persuasive.	My computer has completely crashed.

Fill in the gaps

Fill in the gaps with the words on the right.

1. Are you feeling OK? You've _____ said anything since we met up.
2. When she came back from the conference she was _____ exhausted and she slept for two whole days.
3. I'll _____ call you before 1pm.
4. The call was _____ tiring – we disagreed about everything.
5. I can _____ remember a time before the internet.

completely extremely hardly scarcely definitely

Discuss

Discuss the questions with your teacher or classmates.

1

Are/were you completely satisfied with your current or most recent job?

2

Has your internet ever gone down completely at work?

3

Would you find a virtual job interview extremely stressful?

Reflect on the goals

Go back to the second slide of the lesson and check if you have achieved all the goals of the lesson.

yes

no

Reflect on this lesson

Think about everything you have seen in this lesson.
What were the most difficult activities or words? The easiest?

If you have time, go over the most difficult slides again

Answer key

Exercise p. 18

1. hardly/scarcely, 2. completely, 3. definitely, 4. extremely, 5. hardly/scarcely

Exercise p. 10

1. I am nearly ready, 2. I've just eaten, 3. We were just leaving, 4. He is going a bit later, 5. Will you turn down the volume a little?

Exercise p. 9

1. very, 2. almost, 3. a bit, 4. just

Unscramble

A

extremely every happy staying

I am

night.

in

B

My

a little

next video stressed.

is making me

call

Homework answer key

Exercise p. 23

- A. I am extremely happy staying in every night.
- B. My next video call is making me a little stressed.

